

Elocution

An Elocution Competition was held on Friday, 12th August 2022, on the eve of Independence Day, with the theme “Sacrifices of the Freedom Fighters.” The event served as a heartfelt tribute to the brave souls who laid down their lives for the nation’s freedom.

Participants eloquently expressed that the midnight of August 15, 1947, was not merely the birth of a free nation but the culmination of years of relentless struggle and sacrifice. The speeches reflected deep respect for India’s history, its cultural richness and the unwavering spirit of its people.

A total of 23 students participated in the competition. Each participant was given 3 minutes to present the speech. The judging criteria included confidence, content, and body language. The event was judged by K. Elish Garu, Associate Professor of English, and R. Simhachalam, Assistant Professor of English.

The Elocution competition not only celebrated the spirit of freedom but also encouraged students to reflect on India’s historical legacy and communicate their thoughts with confidence and clarity.

Literary Maze

As part of the YoUR Fest – 2023 Cultural and Technical Events, the Literary Club of URCET organized a fun-filled and intellectually stimulating event — Literary Maze — on Wednesday, 25th January 2023. The event was designed to cultivate interest in the English language, vocabulary, and communication skills among students.

The competition featured a series of engaging and creative rounds that tested students' language fluency, spontaneity, and logical thinking. The rounds included:

- Round 1: Picture Word – guessing the word represented by an image
- Round 2: Spot the Hidden Word – finding hidden vocabulary in a sentence or grid
- Round 3: Tongue Twisters – testing pronunciation and fluency
- Round 4: JAM (Just A Minute) – spontaneous speaking without hesitation, repetition, or deviation

Each round challenged students to think on their feet and demonstrate quick wit and command over language. The enthusiastic participation and vibrant energy made the event both competitive and enjoyable.

The event was judged by K. Eliah Garu (Associate Professor of English), Praveen Sir, and R. Simhachalam, who appreciated the creativity and presence of mind shown by the participants.

Literary Maze turned out to be a perfect blend of learning and entertainment, leaving the participants inspired and more confident in their communication skills.

Talkathon

As part of the YoUR Fest – 2023 Cultural Events, the Literary Club of URCET conducted Talkathon on Wednesday, 25th January 2023. This literary event was designed to enhance the spoken ability of students and develop their confidence, creativity, and critical thinking.

The competition consisted of three rounds:

- Round 1: Self-introduction
- Round 2: JAM (Just A Minute)
- Round 3: Describing a picture/scene displayed on the screen

In the first round, participants confidently introduced themselves. In the second round, they were given topics on the spot, which included themes on gender issues, social issues, current affairs, and technology — aiming to sensitise students to relevant societal matters. The final round encouraged participants to speak creatively about a poster, logo, or image, showcasing their imaginative thinking and verbal articulation.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation and provided a great platform for students to speak spontaneously and express their ideas effectively.

The competition was judged by K. Eliah Garu (Associate Professor of English), Praveen Sir, and R. Simhachalam (Assistant Professor of English), who evaluated the students based on fluency, spontaneity, clarity of thought, and confidence.

Talkathon 2023 proved to be a vibrant and meaningful event, nurturing the communication skills of the participants while encouraging awareness and creative expression.

Guest Lecture

A Guest Lecture was organized on Monday, 17th April 2023, for I B.Tech. students with an aim to emphasize the importance of English communication skills in academic and professional growth.

The session was delivered by Mr. R. Obuleswara Sarma, a renowned Spoken English Trainer, author, and motivator. He highlighted that English plays a vital role in broadening perspectives, developing emotional intelligence, and enhancing career opportunities in today's global environment.

The lecture was insightful, engaging, and highly relevant for young learners. Students participated and got benefited from the practical tips and real-life examples shared during the session.

The interactive Q&A segment at the end of the lecture was particularly enriching, allowing students to clarify doubts and gain further clarity on effective communication.

The session successfully inspired students to value English as a tool for self-expression, confidence, and future success.

News Reading

The English Literary Club of URCET organized a News Reading activity for I B.Tech. students on Thursday, 27th April 2023. The event was aimed at providing students with greater exposure to English language usage, while also encouraging them to develop a regular reading habit and enhance their vocabulary and comprehension skills.

As part of the activity, students were given newspapers sponsored by The Hindu. They were instructed to read through selected articles, identify new vocabulary, and paraphrase any article that caught their interest. This not only helped them expand their vocabulary, but also improved their ability to interpret and articulate information in their own words.

The session was highly interactive and educational, fostering better understanding of current affairs while simultaneously strengthening language and analytical skills.

The News Reading event successfully met its goal of promoting linguistic awareness, critical thinking, and a love for reading among students.
